

Celtic Mission to Assisi

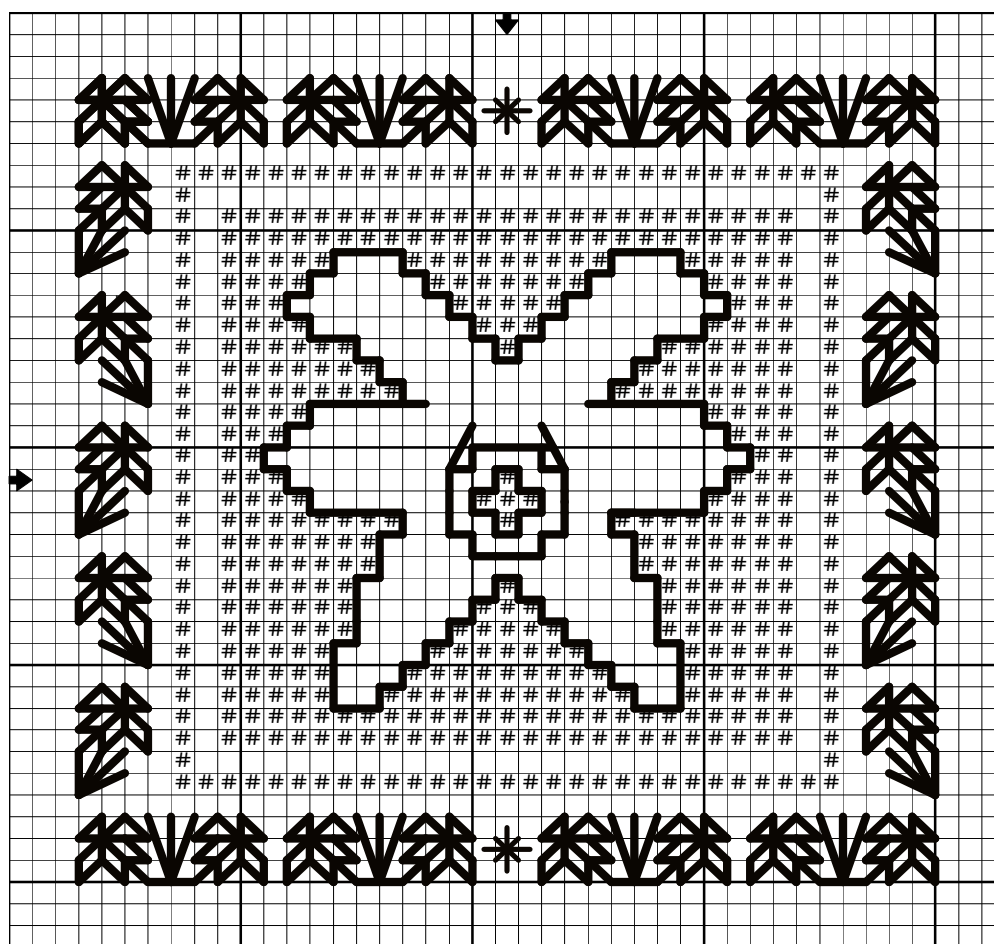

T or R huann D esigns

March brings the feasts of two beloved Celtic saints – St. David, patron saint of Wales (March 1), and the ever-popular St. Patrick, patron saint of Ireland (March 17). I humbly offer two designs based on symbols popularly associated with them.

These can be done with either single-color or overdyed fibers of your choosing. Use 2 strands of embroidery floss or single strand of metallic for all stitching. Cross stitches represented by #. Backstitching represented by solid lines.

St. David (daffodil)

Stitch count: 37x37

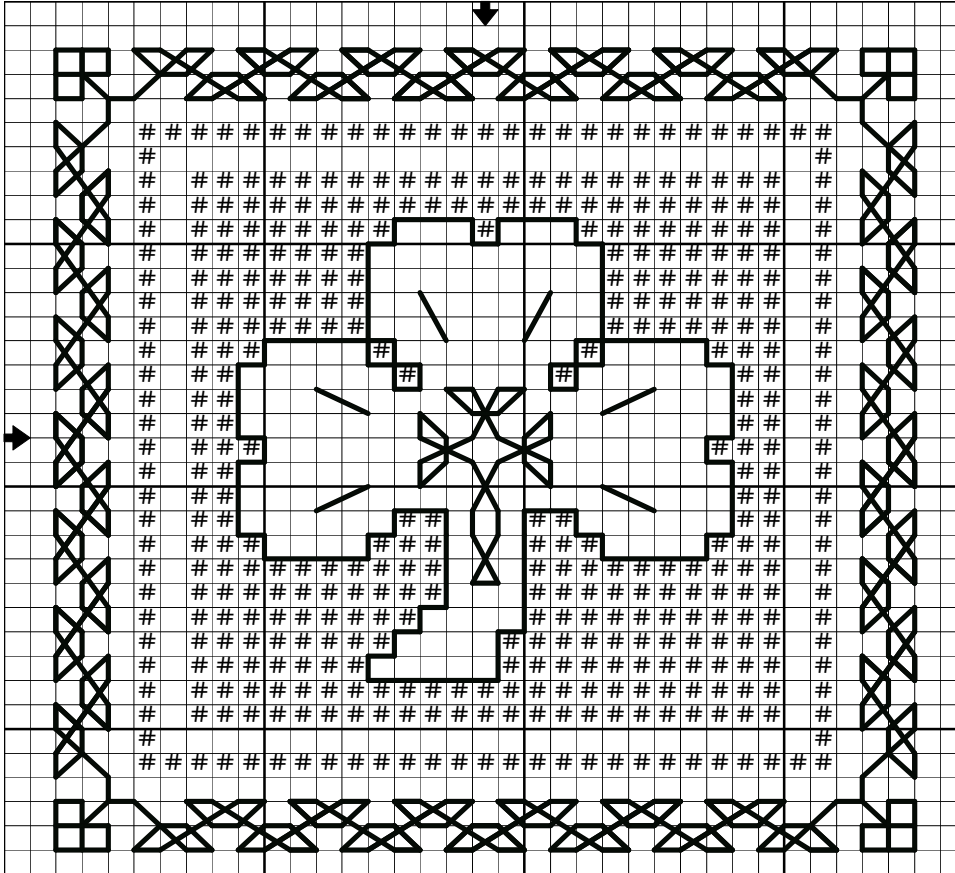

Model stitched by Shannon L. on 28ct hand-dyed Jobelan with Needle Necessities 1621 "Candlelight".

St. Patrick (shamrock)

Stitch count: 33x33

Model stitched by Abi L. on 28ct white Lugana with DMC 125.